The Rio Cosumnes Correctional Center continues to modify and improve the way it handles PREA education, complaints and investigations. During 2016, RCCC underwent a full PREA Compliance audit by a certified Auditor. As a result, many changes were made to policies and procedures to further improve the way sexual assaults are detected and investigated. Additionally, RCCC enacted measures to further improve inmate education and privacy.

In 2017, there were a total of 13 reports filed by inmates at RCCC complaining of sexual abuse that fall within the scope of PREA, as detailed below:

Per PREA §115.5 definitions of dispositions are:

- Substantiated allegation: means an allegation that was investigated and determined to have occurred.
- Unsubstantiated allegation: means an allegation that was investigated and the investigation produced insufficient evidence to make a final determination as to whether or not the event occurred.
- Unfounded allegation: means an allegation that was investigated and determined not to have occurred.

In comparison to last year's data, there was a decrease in reports meeting the criteria set forth by PREA. In 2016 there were eighteen reports of sexual abuse at RCCC meeting the criteria set forth by PREA compared to thirteen in 2017. Of the thirteen cases reported one was reported to staff as having occurred outside the facility. Of the remaining twelve, one was substantiated and referred for prosecution, three were unfounded and eight were unsubstantiated. In 2016, there were four reports of sexual assault at RCCC. In 2017, the number of reported sexual assaults decreased to one. In 2017, the number of sexual battery reports decreased to ten, from eleven in 2016.

After reviewing all reports, it is concluded that all cases were investigated properly and in accordance with the Sacramento County Sheriff's Department's policy and the PREA rule.

Note: To ensure the safety and security of this facility information identifying victims or suspects and specific locations within the facility has been redacted from this report (PREA Standard 115.88(d)).
